

"Top-Heaviness" throughout NBA History

includes top 20% of teams from each year, seasons 1967–2016

Individual data points represent a team's league rank and their win-total for the specified year. Yearly plots are arranged by slope -- years with the most extreme slopes appear first. Ranks are z-scored because the number of teams has changed several times in NBA history.